ELEVEN ANGLING

Our mission is to custom-make powerful fishing experiences that will take you from fabled remote flats in the Bahamas to glacier-carved river valleys in Iceland, New Zealand, and Chile, to pristine lakes and creeks in the U.S. Rockies. Eleven experiences are a different kind of escape. We prefer to venture out on our own, away from traditional destinations, in search of new waters and new challenges. Our lodges, chalets, and beach houses are miles from the main road or well-traveled waterways – in a historic farming area, on a glistening freestone river in Patagonia and other unique locations that beckon inquisitive anglers.

In each destination, world-class food and lodging are combined with guided fishing from rivers to reefs, and a variety of outdoor activities from the mountains to the sea. Guests of all ages and skill levels are encouraged to join in the adventures, and to improve their skills with instruction from our expert guides. Local cultures present the opportunity to participate in a different way of life, to see and enjoy places known only to native insiders.

No matter where in the world they may be, every facility has five-star accommodations, award-winning chefs, extensive wine selections, saunas, steam rooms, and spas. Our friendly, skilled guides strive to add new dimensions to the angling lifestyle, and to share with you that wonderful feeling of camaraderie and fresh adventure.

Eleven Experience is headquartered in Crested Butte, Colorado. Eleven represents a new standard in experiential travel. We quench a thirst for unprecedented adventures, authentic connections with down-to-earth guides and deeply personalized holidays for the discerning traveler.

DEPLAR FARM
ICELAND

ABOUT THE EXPERIENCE

If you're an adventurous angler searching for a unique fishing experience that combines a variety of majestic rivers and lakes, idyllic wading, and world-renowned service, Deplar Farm, Iceland is a destination that shouldn't be missed. Strategically located between Europe and the States, Iceland offers easy access to otherworldly landscapes without hours of traveling. East coast U.S. and London-based guests can be fishing on the same day of travel. Our area of northern Iceland offers more pristine water than could realistically be fished in a lifetime, with fly fishing opportunities for coveted Atlantic salmon, sea-run browns, wild brown trout, and aggressive arctic char. The fishing program, led by our experienced guides, employs the classic European style "beat" system, limiting each watershed to very few anglers over the course of a season—promoting large healthy fish and a private fishing ambiance.

SEASON June 15, 2021 – October 15, 2021

SUITABLE FOR Intermediate to advanced anglers

BOOKING TIPS The key to planning your trip is to book as early as possible, and a year in advance is not too early if you want the choice of best options and dates. While booking the best salmon fishing coincides with specific rivers and beats, the wild trout and char fishing is more flexible. And with so many river and lakes to fish, Iceland is the ideal place to share a rod with a friend or family members. Our Experience Managers are here to assist you with all aspects of your trip; ground transfers, activities apart from your fishing itinerary, and any other adventures you have in mind throughout your stay at Deplar Farm.

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

DEPLAR FARM

Located in the remote Fljot valley in the mountainous Troll Peninsula in northern Iceland, Deplar is a converted sheep farm. Today's modern structure celebrates a rugged past, and honors authentic Icelandic architecture with 13 en suite bedrooms and living spaces made for lounging. Iceland turns day and night on its head—long days, short nights during most of the fishing season. So a long day of arduous fishing doesn't mean you can't return to one of the thermal pools for a beer or cocktail, followed by a massage, then a fresh chef-selection dinner with a northern flare.

ANGLING DETAILS

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

There are many exciting fly fishing options for your Iceland adventure. To make the best use of your vacation time, and to assure you of the best program to suit your needs, our fly fishing experts will work with you to customize your ideal trip. For example, on travel days between locations, we often suggest fishing half a day in the morning, then moving midday, and fishing at another location in the afternoon. This allows traveling anglers to move on to the next destination or river system and not miss any fishing.

◀ WHAT IS UNIQUE ABOUT THE FISHING TERRAIN IN ICELAND?

Mother Nature provides glaciers, spouting geysers, volcanoes, swirling waterfalls, and surreal clear water that makes it possible to fish small skated flies that can produce heart-stopping visual takes.

◀ WHAT IS DEPLAR'S PROXIMITY TO MAJOR RIVERS?

The Fljótaá River is located right out our front door, and is a great choice if you're looking for salmon and char. The Húseyjarkvísl, one of those special rivers where one can fish large Atlantic salmon and monster brown trout, is an hour away. Eleven also owns exclusive cabins on the Hölkna in the remote northeast of Iceland.

◀ WHAT TIME OF DAY CAN I FISH?

Most fishing times in Iceland are broken into morning (from 8am to 1pm) and afternoon (from 4pm to 10pm) sessions. On the Húsey and the Hölkna, however, we can fish any time in the day as long as it doesn't exceed 12 hours. This gives Eleven guides and anglers much more flexibility to fish at the best times.

◀ WHAT TYPE OF GEAR WILL I BE USING?

Most rods range from 9 foot 5 to 8 weights, with lighter gear for trout and char. For salmon, we generally use a single-handed 9 foot 8 weight or a 12 foot 8 weight 2 hander. While floating lines are the norm, we also like to bring a sinktip.

◀ WHAT GEAR DOES ELEVEN PROVIDE?

Eleven provides all gear, from rods, reels, lines, and leaders, to waders, wading shoes, and backpacks. While your guide will have an extensive selection of flies for every location you fish, you are welcome to bring some of your favorite dries, nymphs and streamers.

FLY FISHING FOR ATLANTIC SALMON

A lot of adventurous anglers have been fly fishing in Alaska and New Zealand, but somehow overlooked Iceland. We can take care of that for you with Deplar Farm as your northern Iceland headquarters from April through September. With access to some of the most productive salmon rivers in Iceland, Eleven's professional fishing guides will design an itinerary to suit your goals and to give you the best chance at landing a prized Atlantic salmon - from our home base on the Fljótaá, to the magnificent "Húsey", to our remote cabins on the Hölná.

A unique attribute to fishing in Iceland is its commitment to conservation. Fishery associations are assigned to all waters, and they strictly regulate the natural fish stock and monitor the fishing pressure. Angling in Iceland is 100% catch and release, wading only, and fly fishing only with a restricted number of rods allowed per day.

A FEW OF OUR FAVORITE RIVERS

THE FLJÓTAÁ

With the upper stretch right out the front door, the main section of the Fljótaá River is just 5 miles from the lodge, and features 5 km of riffles, narrow runs and 64 named pools. A great choice to combine salmon up to 20 pounds, and Arctic char up to 6 pounds. Limited to just 4 rods per day our guides will lead you to the best pools. Excellent light tackle fishing; swing or skate your favorite patterns to holding salmon or make a dry fly presentation to sipping char.

THE HÖLKNÁ

This two-rod river offers a unique opportunity for anglers to experience Atlantic salmon fishing, as exclusive as it gets and with no set AM and PM sessions you design your own day. The two rods have access to an 8 mile stretch of gin-clear water, with 27 marked pools and a good number of unmarked pools. Hölná is truly one of Iceland's up and coming rivers. Eleven's Hölná Cabins are located right on the banks of the river in the northeastern part of Iceland. They are as comfortable as they are remote.

THE HÚSEYJARKVÍSL

The Húseyjarkvísl is one of the ultimate fishing destinations in Iceland, and one of the few rivers that offers both world class salmon and sea trout fishing. The sea trout season starts in April and offers anglers the rare opportunity to heli-ski and catch trophy trout in the same day. Atlantic salmon are king in July and August. This three rod river spans over 14 miles with 50 named pools, and is just an hour from Deplar Farm. No fixed AM or PM fishing sessions means you and your guide are free to design your day for the best fishing.

RIO PALENA LODGE
CHILE

ABOUT THE EXPERIENCE

Welcome to Rio Palena lodge and a unique Eleven Angling adventure. Starting at home base on the Rio Palena there are four to five full-day river sections to enjoy, each with a variety of challenges and surprises, accessed by Hyde drift boats and Hyde jet boats. Skating and twitching large dries like Fat Alberts and Chernobyl patterns can produce explosive strikes. Long riffles are ideal for pulling over and wading, and while dries can be effective, fishing one of our favorite pancora imitations on a long swing is truly deadly. For streamer aficionados, you will find the Palena to be one of the best rivers anywhere for trophy browns, and with the water so clear it's often a visual experience that anglers live for.

Included in your fishing adventure are Eleven's Palena Canyon outpost and a riverfront outpost on the lower Futaleufu, a secluded haven that provides quick access up and down stream to magnificent stretches of the Futa. The exciting dragonfly fishing in Lake Yelcho, and big browns and king salmon in the lower Yelcho River are also well within reach. Add at least one day of helicopter fishing to remote lakes and streams, and you have the most dynamic fly fishing experience available in Chile.

For non-anglers, or if you just need a day off from fishing, we offer hiking, mountain biking, and stand up paddleboarding in the Andes Mountains, sightseeing picnics, cooking classes with wine tastings, or just kick back at the lodge and schedule a soothing massage.

And then you have the intangibles of the awe-inspiring Andean forests towering overhead, the sounds of the current rushing over boulders, a giant condor floating on a thermal over a glacier. It's an atmosphere of tranquility and raw nature to appreciate and savor.

The guides can also be flexible during your trip, and can customize each day to provide the fishing experiences you enjoy most. Whether you like to float fish or walk and wade, we've got you covered.

◀ WHY CHOOSE RIO PALENA?

It's always an advantage to have good home water and there are four to five full-day sections right out our back door. For beginners, fishing large dries can produce explosive strikes. Even experienced anglers love twitching and skating a big dry to lure a large brown or rainbow out of the depths. Long riffles are ideal for pulling over and wading, and streamer aficionados, you will find the Palena to be one of the best rivers anywhere for big browns.

◀ HOW BIG ARE THE TROUT?

The region's trout average 14 to 20-inches, with fish between 20 and 24 inches caught most days. Hefty prizes of 25+ inches can be a weekly occurrence.

◀ WHAT RIVERS WILL I HAVE ACCESS TO?

In addition to the Rio Palena, you'll float fish the upper and lower Futaleufu with the lower stretch emptying into Lago Yelcho. Jet boats are used in Lago Yelcho to whisk you to reed-laden bays and inlets to cast dragon fly and beetle patterns to cruising trout that sometimes sip and other times crush your offering. We also fish the Rio Yelcho for trout and king salmon, along with remote waters only accessible by helicopter.

◀ HOW DO WE ACCESS REMOTE AREAS?

We offer unique helicopter access fishing to rivers and lakes that will change your life. An unforgettable experience in pursuing wild trout and salmon in pristine wilderness areas.
