As you awake on the first morning of your honeymoon, imagine being greeted with one of these incredible, world-beating sights...

► Six Senses Yao Noi

Six Senses Yao Noi sets the highest benchmark for island resort living in Asia. Simplicity and natural beauty are at the heart of this stunning resort on the unspoiled island. Located beyond Phuket, approximately 40 minutes by speedboat from the mainland, in the truly stunning Phang Nga Bay, there's a pure sense of privacy and adventure. 55 elevated Pool Villas offer superb space and seclusion and a variety of awesome views. Sea View villas offer glorious vistas over Phang Nga Bay, while Mountain View villas face a plantation of rubber trees and tropical forest.

▼ Chalet Pelerin, French Alps

Nestled in the tiny historic farming village of Le Miroir lies one of the best of the beaten track exclusive chalets – Chalet Pelerin. With just four king bedrooms and a fun four-bed bunkroom, families or groups of friends can take over the entire chalet, turning it into a glamorous private home from home where guests can enjoy off piste skiing, Nordic skiing, ice climbing, dog sledding, snow shoeing and exhilarating heli-skiing across the French-Italian border.

◀ Cape Sounio, Athens

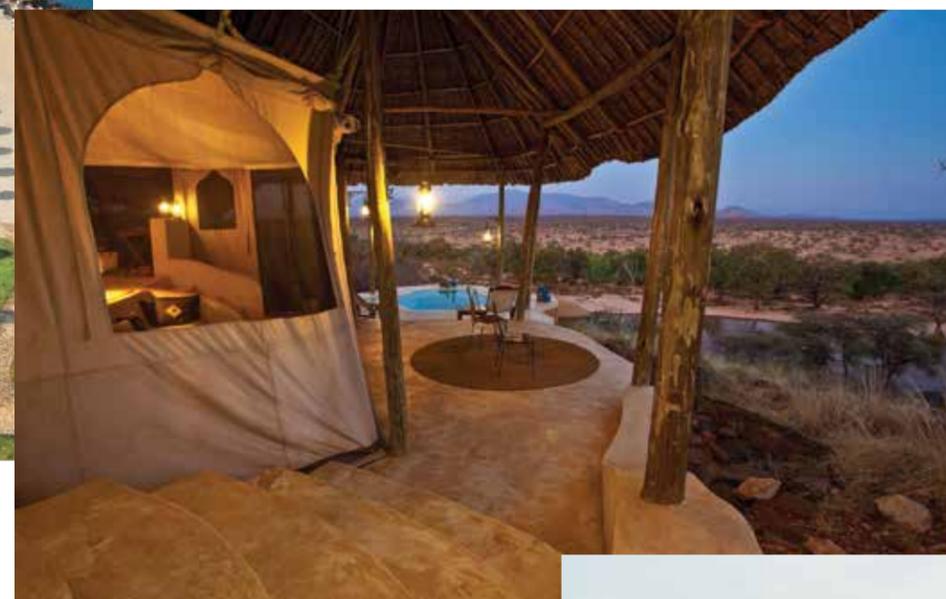

Overlooking the ancient Temple of Poseidon and the Aegean Sea, Cape Sounio echoes the magnificence of ancient Greek architecture. Colourful gardens of bougainvillea and jasmine flank arcaded buildings and hilly grounds. Terracotta bungalows and luxury villas sit among the olive trees. Only an hour from Athens, Cape Sounio makes it simple to sightsee, shop and explore the Greek islands.

◀ Sasaab Lodge, Kenya

Sasaab is a stunning blend of Moroccan and Swahili style, located in the heart of the African bush. Regular visitors to the nearby watering holes include elephants, lions, leopards and cheetahs. Each of the nine Moroccan-styled rooms is over 100m² with an enormous open-air bathroom and private plunge pool. From their pools, guests can take in the remarkable views across the Laikipia Plateau towards Mount Kenya.
